

CELEBRATING WOMEN OF POWER

This women's month, CEF recognises and celebrates the incredible contribution that our strong women make to the energy sector.

Ms. Ayanda Noah
Group Chairperson

MD of AN Duke Engineering Solutions, CEO at Enerdigm, she previously served at Eskom as Group Executive for Distribution & Customer Services Division and CEO of Utility Coach.

Adv. Priakumari Hassan
Non-Executive Director

Established Women of Africa Investment Group which is a women-owned, women-managed, Black-Economic Empowerment company strongly committed to gender empowerment.

Ms. Nolubabalo Sondlo
Non-Executive Director

CEO of Sondlo Chartered Accountants with skills that include external audit, internal audit as well as audit clean-up operations in the private and public sector.

Ms. Unati Figlan
Non-Executive Director

Runs Hlonela Engineering Solutions, chaired several committees at Eskom distribution and served as an Executive Director of PowerTech Transformers.

Ms. Gosetseone Leketi
Non-Executive Director

Chief Director: Petroleum and Petroleum Products at the DMRE as well as director at the Chieta-Base Chemicals and Petroleum Chamber.

Ms. Ditsietsi Morabe
Group CFO & Executive Director

With 26 years' experience, she oversees Corporate Finance, Supply Chain Management and Treasury functions in the CEF Group.

Ms. Brenda Moagi
Group Executive: Legal, Compliance, Risk & Security Management

Corporate lawyer with over 20 years' experience and oversees the Legal, Compliance and Risk as well as Security Management portfolios at CEF.

Ms. Zinhle Thupana
Group Executive: Corporate Services

Certified Ethics Officer who oversees HR & Payroll, Learning & Development, Employee Relations as well as the Facilities functions for CEF Group.

